

THE LIFE, BLOOD AND RHYTHM
RANDY CASTILLO

A Documentary from Cinema 1 and 18 Lights Pictures

"The Life, Blood and Rhythm of Randy Castillo"
A Rock Documentary from Cinema 1 Film and 18 Lights Pictures
(82 min.)

"Not only was he a force of nature as a drummer, he was a force of nature as a human being."

"The Life, Blood and Rhythm of Randy Castillo" tells the story of a kind-hearted, sometimes mystical musician whose unique style redefined the art of heavy metal drumming, and whose generous spirit became a quiet legend in the lives he touched behind the scenes.

Randy Castillo's thunderous virtuosity and unbridled stage performances contributed to the resurgent popularity of hard rock concerts in the 1980s and '90s when he played with Ozzy Osborne, Motley Crue, Lita Ford, and other icons.

The film traces Randy's musical evolution, from his first, childhood drum kit; to his high school drum and bugle corps days; to the esoteric stage craft of his early touring bands; and finally, to the innovative performance art that defines his legend—and heavy metal, itself—to this day.

Randy shifted his focus to romance at the peak of his career, as he found time to imagine a family life with his fiancée, Christina. But he was taken by cancer soon after, leaving a deep and sudden void in the lives of Christina, his mother and sisters, and a surprisingly large circle of rock stars, many of whom considered Randy one of their closest and most trusted friends.

The film features superstar interviews, concert footage, Randy's own home movies, and behind-the-scenes glimpses of the first Native American drummer to reach the top of the pop music charts.

Narrated by Lita Ford
Written and Directed by Wynn Ponder
Produced by Michael Bell

Featuring Interviews with:

Slash – Lemmy – Zakk Wylde – Lita Ford – Nikki Sixx – Martha Davis – Bill Ward – Vince Neil – Kip Winger – Phil Soussan – Mike Inez – John 5 – Billy Sheehan –
Bobby Blotzer – Duff McKagan – Matt Sorum – Jerry Cantrell – Carmine Rojas – Tico Torres – Mitch Perry – Stevie Salas
(more)

To discuss representation or distribution opportunities, contact:

Wynn Ponder
213.479.5664
video@uslogo.net

View the trailer:
www.randycastillomovie.com